Parent Education, Community Concerns & Child Advocacy

Parent Education about community concerns within the school and community affecting children and their families are best addressed at the local level. Some areas of concern for PTA involvement include:

The Top 22

1. Bullying/Cyberbullying
2. Prescription Medicine Abuse
3. Over-the-Counter Misuse
4. Inhalants
5. Alcohol Consumption
6. Illegal Drug Use
7. Internet Safety
8. Youth violence
9. School violence and vandalism
10. Smoking and Tobacco
11. School attendance
12. Gangs and cults
13. Delinquency prevention
14. Domestic violence
15. Television Viewing
16. Video/Computer Gaming
17. Homelessness
18. Juvenile justice
19. Date Rape
20. Missing and exploited children
21. Safety and safety education
22. School discipline

Your PTA/PTSA/PTO or other parent-teacher group should be seeking solutions to your community's concerns by:

- Contacting community agencies for additional information and assistance
- Educating the community including parents, staff, elected officials and the general public
- Identifying solutions and actions that need to be taken

The Mission of the PTA:

- To support and speak on behalf of children and youth in the schools, in the community and before governmental bodies and other organizations that make decisions affecting children;
- To assist parents in developing the skills they need to raise and protect their children;
- To encourage parent and public involvement in the public schools of this nation.
